

Madison Report

January 3, 2023

Important Dates

These are events that are known at the time of this publication. Please refer to any notifications sent home from your student's teacher for definite dates and times.

- January 3 - School Resumes
- January 10 - PTO Meeting at 6:30 in the library
- January 19 - Mrs. Brooks' class to Boston School Forest
- January 20 - E-Learning Day
- January 23 - Ms. Williams' class to Boston School Forest
- January 27 - Report cards are sent home

Semester Milk Envelopes

If your child takes a milk, other than at lunch time, semester milk money needs to be paid. Please put your payment in the envelope coming home and have your student return it to the office. Regardless of your status, all 6th grade students who take a snack milk are required to pay. Checks can be made payable to Madison Elementary and the fee is $30/child.

Attendance DOES Matter...

Unfortunately, absences and tardies happen. If your student cannot make it to school for any reason, or will be late, please call the office at (715) 345-5419 by 9:20 a.m.

The office is the official keeper of your child's record. If the office is not informed of an absence, it is considered unexcused and you will receive an automated phone call, email, and/or text message. To avoid these, call school by 9:20 a.m.

Winter Wear Policy

5th & 6th Grade Students:

Boots are required to be on the field and playground equipment when there is snow on the ground DURING YOUR LUNCH RECESS ONLY!

Kindergarten - 4th Grade:

Snow pants AND boots are required to be on the field and playground equipment prior to and during the school day when there is snow on the ground.
